Dear Ms. Takach:

The Federal Election Commission has considered the allegations contained in your Complaint dated August 10, 2012, but there were an insufficient number of votes to find reason to believe that the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, was violated, or to take any other action as to any of the above-referenced respondents. Accordingly, on September 10, 2013, the Commission closed the file in this matter. A Statement of Reasons explaining the Commission's decision will follow.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70426 (Dec. 18, 2003) and Statement of Policy Regarding Placing First General Counsel's Reports on the Public Record, 74 Fed. Reg. 66132 (Dec. 14, 2009). The Federal Election Campaign Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

If you have any questions, please contact Roy Q. Lockett, the attorney assigned to this matter at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

Susan L. Lebeaux
Assistant General Counsel
